"THE CAR WITH A CONSCIENCE"

Model 42 Oakland

MODEL 42 five-passenger touring car is bound to create a deep impression before the season is far advanced. It embodies sound engineering principles and possesses enough meritorious innovations to distinguish it from the common type of touring car. The body has a number of daring lines which stamp it as an individual design, and the aluminum steps, shroud and V-shaped radiator give the car a dashing appearance.

THE NATURE OF THE CH
Lecture by Professor Arthur J. in the Farmers' Week Course, Tuesday, March 5th.

An interesting lecture was given by Arthur J. Jones, Professor of Education on "The Nature of the Child." The main points of the lecture were as follows: There is nothing as "the child." Each child as an individual of his own and as treated as an individual. The important thing in the treatment of child is not the incentive, reward the punishment but what is brought in the child himself. The aim is to find what will bring the desired result in each child. While this is true and each child different, it is also true that children show certain resemblances and a of these resemblances is helpful both teacher and parent. If we what characteristics, interests and tendencies are likely to appear in children we can prepare ourselves in advance and thus guide and direct more intelligently. Hence there is a distinct direct advantage in studying the characteristics of children. There is frequently an increasing demand teachers shall prepare in advance their work with children by some systematic study of child nature methods. It is strange that we not recognized the value and even necessity for such a training not for teachers but for every young man. There are few places where young woman can secure the training and instruction which will prepare for intelligent motherhood. Instead a very inadequate guide to the parent and education of the little child. All who have anything to do with children should know certain facts of the physical and mental nature of children.

Observation and measurements of the minds of children have been taken at different ages. Individual children differ from these averages either above or below; the advantage in knowing Youngsters With Pimples.

Dr. Dr. True

A mother asks me how she shall remove pimples and humors that disfigure her child's face. My answer is very simple: direct, because all such humors are the result of poisons in the system that should be carried off in the secretions, but are not. When anyone finds the skin becoming yellow, dry, scaly, or when blackheads, pimples or blotches appear, they should at once take my Dr. True's Skin Purifier for such skin and humors. This is not a remedy, it is a wholly vegetable and pleasant, but very effective. It corrects a wrong condition of stomach and bowels, and sets these important organs in healthy activity, so that waste and poisons are driven from the system. No mother need feel anxiety about her child's skin if she will give my pleasant remedy a chance to remove the cause of them. And I urge anyone young or old, who is now enduring skin troubles, to follow the same course. It will certainly correct the evil.

I recommend, too, that they use Parker's 23-C Cold Cream on face and neck every night. In this way they will make the skin soft, healthy and free from all blemishes.

Mrs. H. L. Steinfeld, Miss Bernice
Steinfeld and Mrs. Tabbs of Berlin,
N. H., have been the guests of friends in town for the past week.

Archer Griffin is enjoying a far-night's vacation from his studies at the "Little Blue School" of Farmington, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M.
D. Griffin of Franklin street.

The last assembly dance was held on Thursday evening at the Business Men's Club rooms and about thirty couples were present. The rooms were attractively decorated with palms and potted plants and these with the excellent music made the occasion a very pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Doughty of
So. Portland, Me., are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son born on Wednesday of last week.

The friends of J. V. Tucker in this town will be pleased to learn that Gov.
W. F. Haines has appointed Mr. Tucker as judge of the Municipal Court at Sanford, Me., to succeed Judge Hanson.

The Misses Hazel and Ruth McGregor are spending a vacation from their studies at Wellesley College with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McGregor,

AFTER PASSING YEARS

Rumford Falls Testimony Remains Unshaken.

Time is the best test of truth. Here is a Rumford Falls story that has stood the test of time. It is a story with a point which will come straight home
to many of us.

Otis W. Burgess, Rumford Falls, Me., says: "About five years ago I had an attack of kidney trouble. I had sharp pains in the small of my back that came on me suddenly while at work.
I tried different remedies but none seemed to give me relief and I began to get worse instead of better. I was so bad at times that I could not work at all and after I stopped, I could not straighten without assistance. I could hardly turn myself in bed my back felt so sore. I was losing my appetite and was getting weak. Dizzy spells also began to make their appearance, when someone suggested my trying Doan's Kidney Pills. I went to the Cote Pharmacy and got a supply. Six boxes of this wonderful remedy entirely cured me, and I am well and strong, and do my work daily. I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all who suffer from kidney trouble."

NORTH WATERFORD.

George Hobson passed away March 29th at the age of 95 years, 4 months, 23 days. He had been confined to his bed only a week and one day. He was very tenderly cared for by his son's wife, Mrs. George Hobson, with whom he lived, but he said he had lived long enough and wanted to go. He had always been a hard working man and worked doing chores and sawing wood this winter. He leaves five children, nine grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. The funeral was held at his home, Rev. W. B. Hague officiating.

Mrs. Roy Lord is caring for the sick
at Jess Littlefield's. Eliza McAllister is working there.

Born, March 23d, to the wife of Jess Littlefield, a daughter.

R. M. McKee is moving to the late Howard Barnham place.

Nell Hobson from Massachusetts came the night her father died, and went away after the funeral.

Mrs. Lydia Lord, who has been so sick with grippe, is very much better.

HEART THRILLING GEMS.

One day at a time—that's all it can be.
No faster than that is the hardest
fate.
And days have their limits, however we Begin them too early and stretch
them too late.
One day at a time. It's a wholesome rhyme—
A good one to live by; a day at a time.

—Helen Hunt Jackson.

GUTHRIEMANE.
The others slept; he went apart
Beneath the garden trees;
The heavy burden on his heart
Had crushed him to his knees.

The mantle of the night was laid,
And silence fell around
Save where the brook of Cedron made
A little murmuring sound.

The son of God had traveled long
Upon a weary road;
The spirit that had been so strong
Was faint beneath its load.

His strength was ebbing fast away;
The light that led was dim;
He knew that those who would betray
Were coming there for him.

And thus he prayed: "O Father, let
The power that is Thine
Remove this bitter cup—and yet,
Thy will be done, not Mine!"

And lo! in answer to his cry,
As with a rush of flame,
From out the vaulted midnight sky
A radiant angel came.

The angel touched and made him
strong;
No more were loss and pain;
The way was right that had seemed wrong.
And peace was his again.

What could it matter to him then
That they should seek him there—
A press of cruel, taunting men,
With a cross for him to bear?

It may be soon, it may be late—
That fateful hour when we Shall pass within the garden gate
Of our Gethsemane.

And when we kneel to offer up
The agonized spirit's cry,
"O Father, take away the cup,
And let this hour pass by!"

Then may we humbly add, "Thy will,
And not my will, be done!"
Thus shall Thy peace the spirit fill,
And victory be won.
—John Blair Munn in the Youth's Companion

AS TO YOU.
Did you give him a lift? He's a brother of Man.
And bearing about all the burden he can.

Did you give him a smile? He was downcast and blue.
And the smile would have helped him
to battle it through.

Did you give him your hand? He was clipping down hill.
And the world, so I feared, was closing him in.

Did you give him a word? Did you show him the road?
Did you just let him go on with the load?

Did you help him along? He's a sinner like you.
But the grasp of your hand might have carried him through.

Did you let him go? Just a word and a smile
Were what he most needed that last cold winter morn'g.

Did you hear what he told you that winter of years,
That a cross made his load and that compassion eased?

Did you let him go? Did you let him go to find out what he needed and from where?

Did you let him leave him to battle it through?
No you know what it means to be lost in the night,
When a lift just in time might set everything right!

No you know what it means—just the clasp of a hand—
When a man's heart about all a man
ought to stand!

Did you ask what it was—why the questioning lip?
And the glittering tears down the pale cheek that slip?
Were you brother of his when the time
came to bat?

Did you offer to help him or did't
you see?
There's no room left for the rest of a brother of Man.

"I am only too glad to testify to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Miss Nora G. Hagerty, of Lincoln, Neb. "I had been all-ing for some time with chronic constipation, stomach trouble and
a terrible misery after eating, when I was taken sick with absence of the bowels.
We had some of the best doctors in Lincoln
in attendance, and they all said I would have to be operated on right away. I had heard of Chamberlain's Tablets, and we got a bottle of them.
I began to take them
and in three days I was able to be up and get better right along. I am the happiest girl

past two years, has leased the Lincoln house at Cornish, for five years and will take possession the first of April.
He has purchased the furnishings and the heavy business. His successor at Brownfield is not yet known to the writer.

Mrs. Belle Sands, nee Fogg, has had a large tumor removed recently. Dr.
Fitch attended her and accompanied her to the Maine General Hospital, remaining until after the operation, which he reports as successful.

D. Walker and wife were called to Hiram two weeks ago, by the illness of their son, Eddie, who was violently seized with the grip and is now in a critical condition.

John Paine and brother, Granville,
who have lived hermits for many years,
were found dead in their home the 10th. Natural causes are reported as the cause of death. They had been dead several days. One was on the bed and the other dressed and apparently trying to build a fire. It is conjectured that the shock of his brother's death caused him to succumb, as he was in a weakened condition.

A telephone is now being discussed
for West Brownfield.

Charles Hill, who recently had electric lights installed in his mill, is taking the advantage of them by running day and night.

Mrs. Mary Nelson of Baldwin, who recently lost her husband, is now with her son, Charles Bennett, for an indefinite period.

An accident on the Maine Central was narrowly averted the 21st. A large boxcar with tons of smaller stones and earth came crashing down the mountain near the Willey house soon after a train passed.

Mrs. Martha Colcord, 48 years of age, is in very poor health.

William Morgan has an abrasion on the knee, caused by an injury during our lay time.

Frank Day's buildings were burned recently with but little insurance to cover the loss.

Weston Cole and wife are visiting Mrs. Cole's parents, Mr. Nathan Lane

The darkest days of husband and wife are when they come to look forward to a childless and lonely old age.

Many a wife has found herself incapable of motherhood owing to some derangement of the feminine system, often curable by the proper remedies.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

SUNDAY RIVER.

Mrs. Fred Muntz of Greer Hill called on her sister, Mrs. H. M. Kendall, the first of the week.

Quite a number of the young people from this place attended the moving pictures at Bethel, Friday evening.

Leander Long and Aubrey Atwell, who have been working around here for some time, started for their home in Nova Scotia, Monday.

Bradford Costin visited friends in this place the latter part of the week.

C. A. Baker has two teams hauling dowsels to Bethel.

Howard Bailey went to Grafton with four horses Friday with a load of supplies and returned Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reynolds, who have been working for Lawson Atwell for the past few months, got through last week, and came out of the woods.

Mr. Reynolds purchased the farm known as the Jackson place of J. J. Spinney.

J. A. Spinney is quite sick at this writing.

Miss Margaret Muntz, who has been visiting friends and relatives in this place, returned to her home on Grover Hill the middle of last week.

Mr. Mason called at J. J. Spinney's one day last week.

Alfred Hobbs is boarding J. A. Thurston's mill crew.

Lewis Spinney, who has been logging in Grafton, came out of the woods last week.

W. G. Emery, who has been logging at Richardson Pond, returned home Saturday.

Alfred Long is staying at H. M. Kendall's.

J. W. Reynolds is working for C. A. Baker.

A dear little girl has come to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Dean.

Y. A. Thurston came up this river April first with a load of supplies for the drive.

STOPS THAT CRAVING

"I had taken one other well-known 'cure' twice, and although it took six weeks each time to fix me up, there was always that terrible burning desire for drink. I now have no craving or appetite any more than if I had never known the taste of it. Part of the letter of a man whom we freed in THREE DAYS from this habit."

DRINK HABIT
